

PROSPECT OF EARLY SETTLEMENT PEACE CONTROVERSY IS NIL; LODGE FLIES COOP

Republican Leader Backs Down After Terms Practically Accepted.

NO HOPE COMPROMISE IS NOW HELD OUT

Bi-partisan Conference Notified by Republicans No Concessions Coming.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Prospects of an early settlement of the peace controversy passed today when Senator Lodge served notice on the members on the bi-partisan conference that he would not surrender any of the guarantees included in the Lodge reservation. The re-worded reservations presented last week, which made concessions on several points, were not brought up at today's conference.

Senator Hitchcock issued a statement, following a conference with democratic members, in which he said an agreement had practically been consummated when Lodge took his stand.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Optimistic people were hopeful today that this week would see the end of the peace treaty deadlock. The bi-partisan conference which has been struggling for several weeks to affect a compromise on the treaty was to meet again late today and resume its negotiations.

Senator Lodge, republican leader, was expected to deliver an ultimatum to the democrats to the effect that the wording of the important reservations might be changed, but that the principles must be preserved if the treaty is to be ratified. (Senator Hitchcock, the democratic leader, it is expected, will deliver a counter-ultimatum insisting upon reservations which will not disarm the treaty.)

NEGRO DIES FROM WOUNDS RECEIVED SATURDAY NIGHT

Ed Clark, negro, is dead and Charlie Namie was held in the county jail today on a charge of murder as a result of a shooting affray at the Decatur union station Saturday night.

According to the story told officers by Namie, Clark is alleged to have raised a Namie check from $4.10 to $25. A dispute is said to have followed when the negro was questioned regarding the matter. Namie is said to have shot six times, one of the bullets penetrating the negro's lung, fatally wounding him. Clark lived until Sunday. Immediately after the shooting Namie was arrested by the Decatur police and turned over to the county authorities, on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

He was later released on a $1,000 bond, but was rearrested following the negro's death. It is expected he will be given an early hearing.

NEWBERRY LAWYER UNABLE TO APPEAR

(International News Service.) GRAND RAPIDS, Jan. 26.—A delay in the opening of the trial of U. S. senator Truman F. Newberry and 134 of his aides and supporters on charges of conspiracy, which was scheduled to begin Tuesday in the U. S. district court, seemed probable today when it was announced that Judge O. Murfin, chief counsel for Newberry, was ill with influenza.

Martin W. Littleton, of New York, made the announcement but said he believed that Judge Murfin would be sufficiently recovered by Thursday to appear in court. Senator Newberry is expected to arrive from Washington this afternoon. More than half his co-defendants came today.

COOSA RIVER POWER WILL BE CUTOVERTONIGHT AT 12 O'CLOCK

Need of Taller Towers at Guntersville Cause Delay in Plans.

Power from the Coosa river will be running the industries of Albany-Decatur this time Tuesday, if the plans of the Alabama Power company do not miscarry.

It was announced at the local offices today that a need of taller structures, carrying the transmission line, at Guntersville caused a delay in the plans to cut over last night and current will not be turned on until midnight tonight.

Lights may go off for a short time tonight, it was stated, while the lines are being cut over near the midnight hour. The company chose that hour in order that there might be as little inconvenience to the public as possible.

If the current is turned on at midnight, the new 30 year franchise recently granted by the company by the city councils of Albany and Decatur will be effective Tuesday. Under the agreement by which it was given, it goes into effect upon the completion of the transmission line.

MEMORIAL TO BE PRESENTED KIN OF THOSE WHO DIED

Plans are being made by the Recruiting Officer for the district of Alabama for the distribution by the American Legion on February 22, George Washington's birthday, of the memorial diplomas to be issued in the name of the French Government to the nearest of kin of Americans who died in the service of their country during the World War.

This tribute is intended as a token of appreciation and gratitude of the French nation to the memory of the noble sons of her sister republic who made the supreme sacrifice that liberty and justice might be perpetuated among the nations of the earth.

The memorial is a drawing executed by Cartier of Paris, in a steel engraving and bears the following inscription:

To the memory of

Of the United States of America Who died for Liberty during the Great War

The homage of France

R. Poincare

President of the Republic.

The principal figure of the group symbolizes the soul and spirit of the American Army which helped France to maintain alive the flame of the torch of liberty and justice. At the left is the figure of a man, chained and shackled, symbolizing the spirit of evil. At the right, crowning the spirit of America, stands Glory who rejoices with the old war-veteran at the left of the principal figure. The entire group is framed in a border of oak and laurel leaves.

The memorials which will each bear the name of an Alabamian soldier who gave his life, will be sent by the War Department to the Recruiting officer for the district of Alabama and will be distributed by him to the different chapters of the American Legion for presentation to the nearest of kin at a formal ceremony on Washington's birthday.

TROOP WITHDRAWAL FROM RUSSIA MAY BE RETARDED; THE REDS CAPTURE AMERICANS

Khaki-Clad Soldiers to Remain Until Comrades Are Released

RED CROSS NURSE IS AMONG THOSE HELD

Gen. Graves Expected to Demand Freedom of Soldiers at Once.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The war department announced today it was without official confirmation of the capture of a number of Americans by Bolsheviks in Siberia. Lieut. Col. Frank R. Blunt, of Plano, Ill. is believed to be at the head of the party captured, the war department announced. Col. Blunt is not an officer of the army but is connected with the American Railway commission. He was in the engineer reserves but was never called to service.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The withdrawal of American troops from Siberia may be delayed by the reported capture of a party of American engineers and Red Cross workers by the Bolsheviks.

The war department was today seeking complete information of the reported capture of Maj. W. M. Blunt, a Miss Ford and Capt. Charette, and American engineers near Kluichinskaya. Officials declared that they had no fears but that the release of the persons captured could be affected, but it was understood that American troops would not leave the region until they could bring out the captured persons with them.

Gen. Graves, in command of the Siberian forces, is expected to open immediate negotiations with the Bolsheviks for the release of the Americans. Reports received here today were not complete.

The war department will take no official action until official reports have been received, but it was stated that it was believed that Gen. Graves had already taken steps for the release of the captives.

COMMITTEE WILL DISCUSS CHANGES IN PRIMARY LAW

The Democratic state executive committee will discuss the amendments to the primary law, passed by the recent legislature, at its meeting at the Tutwiler hotel Friday, according to notice received here today from Chairman Nesbitt by A. G. Patterson, member from the Eighth district.

The letter follows:

Dear Sir: The last Legislature amended certain sections of the Primary law and passed what is known as "The Absent Voters Law." There are three important features of the laws as now amended to which I wish to call your attention at this time in order that you will have them before you in considering arrangements to be made at the next meeting of the Committee, covering qualifications and requirements of Democratic candidates in the May Primaries.

The Chairman of the State Committee is required to certify to the Secretary of State at least twenty days prior to the date of the Primary Democratic candidates to be voted for in more than one county. The Chairmen of the County Committees are required to make a similar certificate to the Judges of Probate of all candidates voted for in only one County. It is necessary, therefore, that all Democratic candidates for offices requiring the vote in more than one County, shall file with the Chairman of the State Committee in addition to any certificate filed with the Secretary of State, a certificate of their candidacy, in order that the Chairman may have information upon which to make his final certificate to be Secretary of State.

Section 58 of the old Primary law is amended and permits the State Executive Committee to assess, in its discretion, all candidates for office except candidates to be voted for only in a single county having a population of less than 45,000, provided that candidates for county offices in counties of more than 45,000 shall not be assessed more than 2% of one year's emolument and, provided further, that candidates for unremunerative offices shall not be assessed to exceed $10.00 where the vote is confined to a single county; $20.00 for a district including more than one county; and $50.00 where the vote is in all counties of the State.

"The Absent Voters Law," requires the proper authority to furnish to the Judge of Probate in all counties, election supplies including ballots, not less than 31 days prior to the date of the Primary election. This requirement will make it necessary that candidates shall qualify sufficiently in advance of the Primary to permit the printing of these ballots and supplies, and as much as 45 days will probably be required.

This information I hope will enable members of the Committee to give information in their districts and to be a basis for the thought and study prior to the meeting of the Committee, in order that their time during the meeting will be conserved. It might well to have your local paper print this information, and with that end in view, I am sending two copies to you.

Very cordially yours,
W. D. NESBITT,
Chairman.

WEATHER FORECAST

A membership campaign will be launched soon by the Tennessee Valley Poultry Association, according to plans now being worked out by officials of the organization. The following new members have been added to the executive board: F. W. Humphrey, J. W. Carl and R. F. Woodard and the board expects a heavy response during the campaign.

The association already is making plans for this year's poultry show. B. L. Malone, on behalf of the Malone Coal, Grain and Motor company, already has tendered the use of the Malone garage to house the show and it is expected this year's exhibition will be much larger than last year's. "We must have the cooperation of the public, however," declared an official today. "We could never have made the success of last year's show that we did, without the help and cooperation of the public and we hope there will be a ready response to our call for membership."

HINES CALLS MEET UNION PRESIDENTS

The shop laborers and maintenance of way brotherhood have called a meeting to be held in Detroit on Feb. 5 to decide on the action to be taken in connection with Director General Hines' answer.

BANKS MUST TIDE THE NATION OVER

THREE BILLION DOLLAR DEFICIT FOR 1921 IS THE PRESENT OUTLOOK.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Congressional leaders are today looking to the American banks to carry the government through a period of financial stress during the fiscal year 1921.

With an almost certain deficit of $3,000,000,000 for the year of 1921, leaders in congress are hopeful that this may be carried by short term treasury notes sold through the banks. If the banks are unable to absorb short term notes to the extent of $3,000,000,000 there are but two alternatives—new taxes or a new bond issue, and both democrats and republicans in congress are opposed to such means of meeting the deficit. Already there is a popular cry against war taxes and to make new taxes would bring a storm of protest against congress that would be reflected in the election. The same holds practically true of a new bond issue.

Soldiers Slayers Seek Change Venue

POWATAN DRIFTS AND MAY BE LOST

ARMY TRANSPORT IS WATER-LOGGED AND MAKES NO PROGRESS.

(International News Service.) NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The United States transport Powhatan is again in tow and headed for Halifax, according to a wireless dispatch received here today by the army transport service.

(International News Service.) BOSTON, Jan. 26.—Drifting helplessly before a driving snow storm, leaking more rapidly and battered by high seas, the disabled army transport Powhatan was in a desperate plight today.

Wireless messages intercepted here indicated that the big ship was losing in her struggle of more than a week to reach Halifax, 200 miles away. Lines from the transport to the towing steamer, Lady Laurier, parted. With the Powhatan again a helpless derelict, Capt. Randall was reported about ready to transfer most of the 200 members of the crew to rescue ships, leaving aboard only a small volunteer crew to help Capt. Randall man her.

THE FORMER KAISER HAS ESCAPED HIS CRIMES

William Hohenzollern, former German emperor, to all intents and purposes has escaped his crimes, and civilization is not to exact from him that ton of flesh which was its due. Holland, friendly toward the deposed monarch, its own royal family connected by ties of blood to the erstwhile war lord and his tribe, has positively refused to surrender him to the allies for trial. This, in the opinion of many authorities, grants immunity to this royal outcast, who may continue the operations of eating and drinking and breathing in comparative safety so long as he does not acquire the wander lust.

The attitude of Holland is not a surprise to the entente. On the contrary, it is almost a relief. With the passing of the dark days of the world war, human sympathies have been invoked and the man who was once hated and cursed as the meanest militarist of his time is now looked on largely as a broken reed who is to spend the latter years of his life in a lonely old castle, despised by all but a few sycophants who hope to yet separate him from a part of his plunder and a still smaller number who would keep him alive as a connecting link between the autocracy of the past and the autocracy which they hope for the future.

Perhaps the worst punishment that could be meted out to the man who is credited with starting the world war would be to make him thoroughly conscious of the fact that he is now of so little importance that his trial is of no concern to anybody. Egoists suffer most from being ignored.

BLINDING THE VOTERS BY FAKE ECONOMY

The old game of blinding the voters on presidential years is being played for all it is worth by the republican majority in congress. A notable instance was the pairing of the rivers and harbors bill to $12,000,000, a sum insufficient to continue work on present projects. And the reason given for this crime against the development of American waterways was "economy," a word that is not found in the republican dictionary during off years. While showing this wholesome regard for the tax payer, the republicans are rushing through the Kenyon "Americanization" bill, carrying an appropriation of $85,000,000 and providing for the education of alien residents of the United States. Just now the red menace is a live political issue, and it is the purpose of the G. O. P. to get on the band wagon, regardless of expense. In plain English, the republicans are spending the people's money in the manner that they think best suited to secure the most votes for the republican presidential candidates. This is an open attempt to bribe the voter with his own coin.

It is unfortunate that the American people must be governed by a political system that thinks always of votes first and that never considers the real merit of any proposition.

SHALL THE TURK REMAIN IN THE NEAR EAST

Wars as well as politics seem to make strange bed fellows. No less an authority than William T. Ellis, the well known international writer, is responsible for the statement that England and her erstwhile despised enemy, Turkey, have entered into a secret treaty of offense and defense. Mr. Ellis says that it is "a story so fantastic that it could be given neither currency nor credence were it mere rumor or surmise. Only the responsible source of the information warrants its publication. The details of the alleged agreement are on file in the foreign offices of all the great powers."

Ye gods! According to this information the unspeakable Turk is not only to remain in Europe unmolested and protected, but is to be the heart to heart ally of a great Christian nation! One of the solemn pledges the responsible statesmen of war times made was that the Turkish power would be destroyed forever. It was this hope that heartened many a weary war worker and many a brave fighter to carry the war to ultimate victory. Should it turn out to be really true that England has allied with the Turk, to what straits the British empire must have been put to consent to such a deal? Can there be any connection between the bitter disappointment voiced by English statesmen of late, at the failure of the Senate to carry on and redeem the pledges of President Wilson to the safety program of the Supreme War Council at Versailles? Did England know that if enlightened America failed to ratify the peace pact, and thus help protect the world from violence, that she must seek the murderous Turks as allies as a desperate measure of self defense?

If the Turk comes into power again among enlightened nations, will the United States bear any of the blame? A casual reading of the newspapers will convince most anyone that Mr. Bryan has not yet succeeded in compromising the peace treaty.

Gen. Foch is going to Warsaw to find out what steps will be necessary to curb the Bolshevik armies that are threatening to invade Poland. What the reds need, Foch will see that they get.

Dr. Garfield, in a recent statement, scored the advance in wages granted the miners. The same gentleman, while U. S. fuel administrator, showed considerable sympathy for the poor down-trodden coal operators.

Governor Roberts, of Tennessee, by a campaign of the state succeeded in securing sufficient recruits to man the super-dreadnaught Tennessee. Recruiting is a new duty for governors, but there is no special reason why they should not do this "bit" for Uncle Sam.

Influenza outbreaks have been reported from more than ten American states and several foreign countries. Some consolation, however, is found in the fact that the contagion is traveling three months behind its last year's schedule.

MOUTH SO DRY WAKED HIM UP EVERY NIGHT

Retired Farmer Now Living in Anniston Declares Dreco Relieved His Nervousness, Eased His Stomach, Overcame Constipation.

Used to Live at Iron City, Alabama.

"I don't believe that anyone can really praise Dreco enough for a medicine as good as this is hard to find the right words," declared that fine gentleman, Mr. W. J. Fincher, who now resides at 1900 Moore St., Anniston, Ala. Mr. Fincher formerly lived at Iron City, Ala., where he still owns several large farms.

"I didn't know what it was to get a good full night's sleep, for I was restless and nervous, and my mouth would get so dry, it would wake me up. I was very bilious. My liver was sluggish, and I had dizzy headaches. My stomach felt like it was loaded with bricks, and my kidneys were not acting right. It is quite different now, for since taking this new root and herb remedy, Dreco, my sleep is so sound as any person could wish. My liver has been worked off nicely; not by purging, but gradually day by day; the pains in my back are all gone, and my kidneys are strong and well again. I haven't had a dizzy spell since I began on Dreco, nor a headache. I feel like a 16 year old boy now, although I am 52. Dreco is a great medicine."

Dreco is a vegetable remedy which acts on the kidneys and aids these important organs to perform their duty of straining the poisons from the blood. The entire quantity of blood circulates through the kidneys every four minutes, and as it passes through, the impurities are filtered out. If the kidneys fail in their work, we may have rheumatism, catarrh, eczema, boils, pimples, scallow complexion, or a dozen other troubles. Dreco aids the kidneys to keep on doing their work as nature intends.

All good druggists now sell Dreco, and it is highly recommended in Albany by Albany Drug Co., and in Decatur by Hilda Drug Co.—Advertisement.

MAGIC IN GOLD AND HUMOR

How Happy Combination of the Two Put End to "Run" on Famous English Bank.

A story is told, with some reservation, by a London paper, concerning the grandfather of the well-known Quaker peer, Lord Peckover. The story goes that, during a run on the bank of which he was a principal, at one time known as that of Gurney, Birkbeck, Peckover & Co., he exhibited, within sight of the counter, bags full of gold, surrounded by a peck measure, also filled with sovereigns. "You see," he explained to the depositors anxious to draw their balances, "that there is enough money for you all, and a peck over." This is said to have terminated the run. Such is the magic of gold, and of humor. One feels by no means certain that stacks of "fivers" would have achieved the same happy result. Or, to revert to the time of George III, when the sum of twopence was represented by a solid two-ounce coin, would a large pile of these weighty "curtweels" have allayed the fears of the small depositor? No! Not even a warehouseful!—Christian Science Monitor.

Hope Not All Abandoned.

Miss Threepence was watching the grizzly bear in his new cage to the northwest of the lion house. A recently constructed chain of bear and other animal cages there has added immensely to the attraction of the place.

Somebody threw the old grizzly a peanut, and then another, but both nuts hit the bars and fell just outside the cage. The bear reached his paw through and tried to scoop the tempting nuts in, but his long, yellow claws seemed to be in his way.

He had to use his claws as a sort of rake, and the spaces between the prongs of his rake proved too wide, so the peanuts slipped through.

Miss Threepence was most sympathetic. The poor bear couldn't get his peanuts. But there was yet hope. The keeper would be around shortly with the bear's dinner, and then—

"Maybe he can get it with a fork or a 'poon," she said.—Washington Star.

Didn't Work Out Right.

A languid swell was visiting a charming young society lady, and as they sat on either side of the fire his heart was full of the burning desire to say something not only complimentary, but brilliantly flattering. So, after revolving the matter in his mind, he said: "Ah, Miss Lillie, why are those fire-tongs so like me?"

He meant her to guess, or ask him to tell her, "because they were prostrate at her feet," or something of that kind.

Miss Lillie, looking solemnly demure, said she didn't know, unless it was because they had two thin legs and a brass head.

He was groping blindly for the front door before she had recovered from the shock of her own volley.

"The Woman Who Fed London."

One of the most interesting figures brought into the limelight of publicity during England's great railway strike was Miss E. M. Hopwood, now called "the woman who fed London." Miss Hopwood was secretary to a large commercial firm in the north of England, and her business ability was so well recognized that when the ministry of food was organized, she was called to the service of the government. She scored success in her emergency war-work that she was appointed at the beginning of the railway strike as food distributing officer for the whole metropolitan area.

Depends on the Result.

"Don't you admire determination in a man's character?"

"That depends. If it brings success I praise it as splendid perseverance, if failure, I denounce it as confounded obstinacy."—Boston Transcript.

Famous Art Collection.

The unique collection of Chinese works of art made by the late Li Hung Chang, one-time viceroy of China, which for years collectors tried vainly to acquire, has finally been bought by a Swedish syndicate. The purchase price is understood to have been more than a million krona (nominally about $250,000), but the intrinsic value of the collection is incalculable.

Li Hung Chang died in 1901. He had a collection of works of art larger than anything of its kind in the empire. It included numerous old paintings, bronzes of great worth and ancient ceramics. The bronzes date from a time before Christ, and the paintings were done from the tenth to the twelfth centuries.

Have to Piece Out Truth.

You can draw your own conclusion from the fact that there isn't enough truth in existence to keep tongues of gossip constantly wagging.

MORGAN NOT ALWAYS HARD

Great Financier Proved He Had Kindly Heart as Well as a Keen Business Mind.

There is no better test of a man's bigness than his way of handling subordinates who make mistakes. J. Pierpont Morgan, the elder, had a clerk who, living beyond his means, sought to make up the balance through speculation; and, having failed, helped himself to the firm's money.

The culprit was called into Mr. Morgan's private office.

He expected arrest. Instead he was told to go home and tell his wife all about it. "And tomorrow morning," said Mr. Morgan, "see me again."

The clerk obeyed, and Mr. Morgan, to the young fellow's amazement, handed him in bills the full amount of his speculation—$5,400—with: "Put that back where you took the other from. It is a loan from me, and I expect you to return it as soon as you can. None of the other clerks know anything about it. Let me see if you can't be a man."

After many months the youngster restored to Mr. Morgan the last dollar of the debt.

After counting the pile of bills on his desk, to which he had added those just given him, Mr. Morgan observed: "Well, my boy, it was a bit harder saving it than losing it. I'll warrant. Now take it home and give it to your wife. It's a safe bet that she saved most of it."—Boston Post.

One Car to 24 Persons.

There is a motor vehicle in the United States for every 24 persons; in Canada the proportion is probably one to each 50; in England, one to 200; in Denmark, one to 300, and in France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland and Germany about one to every 400, says the Compressed Air Magazine, New York. In 1917 it was estimated that Italy had one car to each 1,000 of population; Portugal to each 1,600, Spain to each 1,900, Austria-Hungary, to each 2,650, and Russia to each 5,000. In Australia there was one for each 140 of population; and in South America, as a whole, one for each 1,430.

Many a minor city in the United States has more cars than the whole of China or Japan.

Birds Lack "Homing" Sense.

Although birds build nests, these are only used for breeding. Thousands of birds are killed by the cold each winter because they have no real "homing" sense.

Woman Discusses Rather Unusual Topic

"We women do rather neglect ourselves I guess," said a very busy woman lately, "and of course we have more ailments than the men who are so much more active than we."

"Catching cold easily seems to be our worst affliction but I've learned how not to catch cold and how to keep in glowing good health."

"I've learned that it is simply a matter of keeping my liver active and working as it should, and to do that I find that the pleasantest and most trustworthy, liver regulator I can get is a non-sickening, non-gripping tablet of Rheubarb and refined Calomel called BARBACALS."

"All druggists sell BARBACALS under guarantee to refund your money if the tablets fail to give your absolute satisfaction. Doctors endorse and prescribe these tablets. A large box is only 35 cents. Mr. druggist says there is nothing better than BARBACALS."

Sold in Albany by S. M. Thompson.

SURVIVAL OF THE FITTIEST

Here are music and dancing and laughter, rich viands and flowers and wine;

White shoulders that gleam above satins, bare bosoms where diamonds shine;

Here are heavy-eyed men who are smiling the smile that proprietors wear,

For the war millionaires are good spenders!—why think of the dead over there?

Yet sometimes one cannot but see them—the rows of white crosses in France!

Oh, hasten the measure, musicians! Come, dancers on, on, with the dance!

Here are radicals cursing our country on soap boxes out in the street;

And demagogues screaming revolution and trample our flag 'neath their feet;

They are meeting and mouthing and marching—and are safe!—'neath their banner of red,

For votes are what count with the bosses—and who can get votes from the dead?

Oh, yes—they are there 'neath their crosses, but the country they died to defend

Has other affairs to consider. Election approaches—attend!

Here are Senators hotly debating—for Senators need must debate!

While the sorrowful world and her children must listen in sorrow—and wait!

You are eloquent gentlemen—granted!—but are you not robbing the grave

Of each dead man in France by withholding the peace that, by dying, he gave?

O soldiers beneath your white crosses—ye who lie where the far, foreign breeze

Waves above you the colors you fought for—did you die there to save such as these?

—Roselle Mercier, in N. Y. Times.

"ALL O. K. FOR THE BLOOD"

Is What a Citizen of Georgia Says of ZIRON, the New Iron Tonic.

Iron is needed by the blood to keep men and women strong and healthy. Iron is needed by the nerves to keep them toned up. Ziron, the new iron tonic, will put iron into your blood and should help renew your lagged nerve forces in the way it has done it for many others.

Read what Mr. J. R. Bell, Rt. 2, Oconee, Ga., says about the effects of Ziron: "I think Ziron is all O. K. for the blood. That was what I have been taking it for my blood. I liked Ziron so well that I went back to the store and got two more bottles of it."

Ziron is a combination of a pure medicinal inorganic iron salt, mentioned in the U. S. Pharmacopoeia, with the hypophosphites of lime and soda, and other valuable tonic ingredients, endorsed and recommended by the best medical authorities and mentioned in the medical text books.

All druggists sell Ziron on a money-back guarantee. Look for the formula on the label. Get a bottle today, and give it a fair trial.

NAVY LIBRARY WORTH VISIT

Apartment in States, War and Navy Building at Washington Should Appeal to Tourists.

The navy library, in the state, war and navy building, is a lovely place to soak up atmosphere. Like the building itself, it is thirty-three years old. When it was built England, France, Spain and Italy presented the marbles of porphyry, sienna and malachite with which the walls are paneled. Mexico sent the pieces of onyx which encrust the gallery. The round stone over the door came from the ruins of Pompeii. The connoisseur in marble who visits Washington will enjoy a call here.

In the center of the large room, lined with shelves of weighty tomes on naval matters, there is a large and important green-topped table. Around this table sat the strategic board of the Spanish-American war. Here also the naval advisory board for the great war made their secret plans and experiments. Edison, Maxim, Miller and many others conferred over it, with the windows carefully darkened and a guard before the door.

There is a quaint side to the library, too. A little white-haired lady can be seen any time, flitting about the shelves of dark, heavy books, or cutting and pasting busily in her corner by the window. This is Miss Mason, daughter of a former secretary of the navy. She has been in the library 26 years. If you happen in near noon she may give you a cup of tea on one corner of her desk.

And of all charming places to have an unexpected cup of tea, with a sweet little lady, this quiet nook among the books is recommended.

TWO TRAVELERS CAME BACK

According to Army Captain, Mules Returned From That Dismal and Undiscovered Shore.

The regimental morning report is a fearsome document. On it appear all the changes in status of men and animals for each preceding 24 hours. It happened in an Ohio regiment once that two mules fell ill one night. The veterinarian gave his verdict of hopelessness, and the captain of the supply company accordingly made the proper entry on the morning report: "Two mules, from duty to dead."

But under the care of the grizzled old stable sergeant the mules recovered and next morning the captain found them alive and kicking. Now, entries made on the morning report can never be erased, which made the situation embarrassing for the captain. However, he was a man of resource, and the next day's report carried the startling entry: "Two mules, from dead to duty."

Pepto-Mangan Makes Rich Red Blood

Helps Restore Thin, Run-down Men and Women to Vigorous, Full-Blooded Health.

Recommended by Physicians

Sold in Liquid or Tablet Form—The Name "Gude's" the Guide to the Genuine.

It is a true saying that your health is only as good as your blood. Good, rich blood manifests itself in a healthy, natural complexion; clear, keen eyes; tireless energy and enthusiasm; and an abundant supply of reserve strength.

And just as positively does poor, thin blood directly influence the entire system. Pale, sallow complexion; dull eyes; a listless step, languidness; tiredness; worn-out feeling; general dejection and unhappiness—all are positive signs that the body is not receiving its proper nourishment through the blood.

Pepto-Mangan helps restore vigorous health, because it contains the very elements so much needed by the blood to enable it to perform its functions and supply the body with nourishment, energy, and strength.

For your convenience, Pepto-Mangan is prepared in tablet as well as liquid form. Both possess exactly the same medicinal value.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan, and that is "Gude's". If the name "Gude's" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan.—Advertisement.

MR. FARMER: READ THIS LETTER

A. Z. Bailey Gro. Co., Albany, Ala.

Dear Sirs:—

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your order for 1200 bushels Holdings Selected Early Prolific Fancy Culler cotton seed. Same will go forward in a few days.

We have been improving this cotton for over fifteen years until now it is the earliest and most prolific type of cotton grown in North Carolina. One of our state officials, desiring to get a better type of prolific cotton than he was planting, made thorough investigations of a good many varieties of cotton and finally bought for his own use 600 bushels Holdings Fancy Culler Early Prolific.

My Culling System is the most complete that could be bought. It eliminates about 90 per cent of the small size seed as well as the underweight seed of the same size as the fully-developed ones, thus assuring the planter a much better stand with fewer seed, a more healthy and vigorous growth from the very start, and according to testimonials from those who have tried these seed will make from 25 to 35 per cent more lint cotton per acre. Read the testimonials in the booklet from parties who have planted these seed through Alabama and other cotton states, right in the boll weevil sections and notice the results obtained. I feel confident that you have bought the very best type of Early Prolific cotton seed for your neighbor farmers to combat the boll weevil with and make a good yield.

Yours very truly

PROUD OF HER FAMOUS SONS

Massachusetts Has Sent Out Many Who Have Done Great Things in the World.

Not to be too insistent and greedy, Massachusetts and her "Old Colony" should always file their claims to the honor of producing men that are doing the new work of the world, as well as celebrating forever the Pilgrim Fathers, writes The Listener in the Boston Transcript. It is no accident, no mere coincidence, that both the pioneers of transatlantic air transportation should be Massachusetts men; the first man to navigate an airship from America to England was Commander Read, whose boyhood's home was South Hanson, Mass.; and the first engineer to carry the big street traffic of New York city under the Hudson river is Clifford M. Holland, born at Somerset, Bristol county, thirty-six years ago. Both upper-air and subterranean problems have brought laurels to boys of the Old Colony public schools. To be sure, Commander Read's education was completed at Annapolis Naval academy, and Mr. Holland's at Harvard university, where he graduated in 1900. But there must be something in the stock and something in the system which brings it to pass so often that when great things have been done, or great things are to be accomplished, and the door is necessarily forced into the spotlight of the press, and his antecedents are eagerly examined, the little old significant abbreviation, "Mass.", is apt to appear in connection with some little town as his birthplace.

HAS GREAT FAITH IN COCONUT

German Who Has Tried It Declares It to Be the Ideal Food for Sustenance of Man.

One of the strangest characters in the world is Auguste Englehardt, a young German who lives on the island of Kabakon, in the German New Guinea territory. He exists entirely on the coconut, and sleeps on a bed of sand.

Englehardt is a singularly handsome man of about thirty-five, possessing great wealth and a charming personality. He is known as the "Apostle of the Coconut," on account of the doctrine he teaches that the coconut is the original food of man, and should continue to be so, as all other foods are responsible for the bad passions in the heart and mind of man.

The "Apostle" claims to have over 500 disciples in America, and now the war is over he intends to leave his island home and come back to the old world and proclaim his teachings. He is also a "sun worshiper," living entirely in the open air, and adopting the simple dress of the natives, consisting merely of a "lava-lava," or loin cloth, and when in full dress, that is, when he receives visitors, this attire is completed by the addition of a wrist watch and a walking stick.

Brusa.

Brusa, into which British troops have entered without opposition, was the capital of Bithynia when Trajan appointed Pliny the Younger to govern the province. It was from Brusa, then Prusa, at the foot of Mt. Olympus, that Pliny wrote the letters to Trajan which are among the most interesting of his voluminous correspondence. It is said that Brusa owes its existence to some scheme of Hannibal's, but of the Roman and Bithynian city hardly any trace remains, though Brusa boasts of very fine old Mohammedan mosques. The city of Asia Minor is situated in lovely country, rich in fruit trees and watered by countless springs, and supports a manufacture of silk which should develop unhindered now that the lethargy of Turkish rulers no longer weighs on the city and its inhabitants.

It's Upkeep that Costs.

Experts have just completed an estimate for the high cost of maintaining a rat. If you have a rat on your premises, he is costing you $1.82 a year, according to these experts. They find that one pair of rats is directly responsible for $50,000 more rats in three years, the rat being a strong believer in the Roosevelt theory of large families. The damage in the United States in one year caused by these rodents is over $100,000,000. Over $15,000,000 in property losses is occasioned each year from fires started by rats gnawing the electric wires and gas pipes. The rat also is accused of spreading disease. An intensive campaign to demobilize the rat army is now in progress.

Supply Gas Deficiency.

It is expected that in the near future artificial gas for heating purposes will be substituted largely for natural gas in the Pittsburgh and other districts, where a considerable shortage in the supply of natural gas has developed. This was the prediction made at a conference held recently under the auspices of the Public Service Commission in Pittsburgh. The Philadelphia company, which has been a large supplier of natural gas for many years, it is stated, is now prepared to supply 7,000,000 cubic feet of artificial gas a day, and expects in the near future to be able to supply 30,000,000 cubic feet of artificial gas a day.

VAUDEVILLE AND PICTURES AT MASONIC ALL WEEK

"Dunbar's Comedy Shop Girls," an aggregation of 12 clever people, will open at the Masonic theatre tonight for an engagement of five days. This company comes with the best of recommendations, gives a tabloids comedy and vaudeville specialties. In addition a good picture program will be shown each night.

"YANKEE DOODLE IN BERLIN"
PRINCESS TUESDAY, JAN. 27

The Princess theatre will be the center of attraction Tuesday night when the curtain will rise showing the beautiful Mack Sennett bathing girls, that is, in person. These girls are "loaned" to the Princess theatre through the courtesy of Mr. Sennett, the noted California producer of film comedies. It took a lot of telegrams of pleading from the theatre manager before the King of Comedy would permit his precious diving girls to stray from his studio. However, through some manner the deal is closed and the girls are preparing for a gala day away from home.

"Yankee Doodle in Berlin," the much talked of Mack Sennett feature photoproduction, will be the headliner at the same time, and that is the occasion of the mermaids' visit. This is regarded as the greatest film burlesque on the world war. It is in five parts and shows the Huns in a broad comedy vein throughout. There is said to be a laugh a second in the film, and a beautiful love story is woven throughout the hilarious episodes. Bothwell Browne, the noted feminine impersonator, is featured in the photoplay as a "vamp" who induces state secrets out of the Kaiser, the Crown Prince, Hindenburg and other high-ups.

The beauty of the girls, their refreshing youth and grace and the charm of their picturesque performance can be imagined by those who have seen them in the celebrated "two-reelers" that have made the girls famous and Mr. Sennett one of the three most important producers of animated pictures in the whole world.

"THE BROKEN BUTTERFLY"
STAR THEATRE TODAY

The thrill of big dramatic moments that throb with human emotions, has been achieved in "The Broken Butterfly," the Maurice Tourneur production released by Robertson-Cole as a Special.

The picture is a dramatization of the story Marcene, written by Penelope Knapp, which created a sensation.

Marcene is a character that appeals directly to the sympathies. The pathos of the virgin-hearted girl who gave all to the man she loved, was branded as a scarlet woman by a narrow-minded and bigotted woman who tried to brutalize her sensitive nature and break her spirit, and was driven to attempt self-destruction, is overwhelming.

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BAR ROOM"
MASONIC THEATRE SATURDAY

All of us have our favorite actor, movie star, musician, painter, etc., and it will interest the theatregoers of this city to know that the Eminent Actor-Evangelist, Mr. Robert Downing is making a second tour of the United States, playing the part of "Joe Morgan" in that wonderful play "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." When a man becomes a favorite of the public, it takes years before that man is forgotten. It was a delightful sensation to Mr. Downing during his last season in this same play to note that, although he had been off the stage for about ten years, those who knew him as the classic actor, had not forgotten him, and his reception everywhere was most cordial, so much so, that he at once made up his mind, that he would cover the entire United States once more; this is his second season with this play, he having given upwards of 300 performances last year.

Manager Cagle of the Masonic theatre, begs to announce the appearance of Mr. Downing, at the above mentioned theatre on Saturday, Jan. 31st, for an engagement of one performance.

Domestic Cat Distinct Species.
The Egyptian cat seemed to have a good claim to the honor of being the ancestor of the domestic cat, both on account of its tapering tail and size, in which it bears a great similarity to the domestic cat. But peculiarities which were discovered in its dentition were sufficient to remove its claim. So it seems best to consider the domestic cat a distinct species.

CHRISTIAN ETHICS SUBJECT TREATED BY DR. M'GLAWN SUNDAY MORNING

Central Methodist Pastor Says
Forgiveness is "Unlimited"
In Christian Life

SERIES CONFERENCES
WILL BEGIN MONDAY

Many Delegates to Attend From Entire Decatur District. The First Meeting Tonight

Following his sermon yesterday morning at the Central Methodist church on "The Ethics of the Christian Religion," before a large congregation, Rev. Walter P. McGlawn, the pastor, held a personal worker's conference which according to his statement is preparatory to the coming evangelistic campaign of the Century movement.

In this conference the pastor exhorted the good attendance present, to keep in mind three things in seeking Christian professions: First, convince those approached of your honesty of purpose; second, do not argue religion—just put forward the Scripture truths on repentance; third, encourage definite decision and public confession of Christ.

Another conference on Evangelism was announced, to be held at the Central Methodist church tonight which will be the first, of two or three conferences, the last of which will be held Tuesday morning at the 11 o'clock hour.

Rev. McGlawn and Andrew G. Patterson made short statements on the importance of the conferences tonight and tomorrow.

Mr. Patterson said that the evangelistic campaign of the church which was the main consideration of the Centenary movement, was as carefully planned as have been any of the military campaigns. He said that going over the top for the millions of money was not the real conclusion, any more than "going over the top" by the doughboys ended the battle. He said that the real fighting came after "the top was cleared," and that now was the time to begin the real engagement with the devil and drive him from his deep entrenchments.

Rev. McGlawn said that from 40 to 60 people were expected from the "Evangelistic set up conference" as he called it, and especially would all the ministers and laymen leaders and active women workers of the Decatur district be expected to attend. The pastor gave opportunity to all the membership, who would, to offer to entertain the visitors during their stay in Albany and received a hearty response.

Heaven Ethics
In opening his sermon Sunday morning Mr. McGlawn said that every profession had its ethics. The doc-

Radium Economy.
The use of radium on a large scale therapeutically involves danger of loss, and this factor has been a big one in inducing hospitals and clinics with a gram or more of the element in use to utilize radium emanation instead of applicators containing the radium itself. There has been installed in a Pittsburgh laboratory an elegant and useful apparatus for the collection, purification and tubing of radium emanation obtained from a salt of the element. It differs from earlier apparatus in that liquid air is replaced by chemical means of purifying the emanations, which are felt to be more reliable.—Scientific American.

tors had theirs, so had the teachers, the lawyers and all organizations of people. The speaker said that in fact all people had codes of ethics and went on to declare that in one instance at least he thought Japan had exceeded higher ethical standards than Christian America. The speaker having reference, as he said to the strict censorship of Japan against improper moving picture films. He said that whereas America was allowing highly improper exposure on the screen, that Japan only recently forbade all but one of a number of pictures, that sought admittance into the land of the Mikado.

A feature of the Sunday morning service was the singing of the large choir led by Mrs. R. M. McGlathery with Mrs. Herman O. Troup as accompanist. An especially attractive hymn sung was "In the Secret of His Presence."

The text used by Rev. McGlawn was: "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice; and be ye kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving one another even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

The speaker said that St. Paul was speaking to new Christian converts who in their natural state were taught that it was all right to lie "if they could get by with it." It was declared that always, the Christian ethics, required a discarding of natural instincts and man made ethics. He quoted the Master's words to the effect that it was no value from a Christian standpoint, to love only those who loved in return, or to do good only to those who did good in return.

The Thorn and Grace.
It was recalled how as great a saint as St. Paul, was obliged to always make a fight against a "thorn in the flesh." The speaker said that as God's grace was sufficient for Paul, so his grace was sufficient for all.

It was recalled how the Master had raised the standards of St. Peter on forgiveness, who seemed to think that reassurances forgiven seven times a day was enough. According to the Master's teachings, said the preacher, "we are to forgive seventy times seven."

ten—or indefinitely." It was declared that there was not only such a thing as "bitterness" as to taste, but that there was such a thing as "soul bitterness" toward the failings of others. The example of a farmer who put stray cattle into "pound" was condemned, and that of another farmer who drove stray cattle back to their owner was commended. "You can win any man, by the Christian life," declared the preacher, "but you cannot win anybody when lying a life plainly at variance with the spirit of Christ."

In this connection the preacher held up to view a white sheet of paper on which was printed a very black square. "Now I venture, that all saw the black square, but did not think of or see the 92 other squares of the paper which are perfectly white."

Great care was demanded of all in passing judgment, by the speaker, but on the other hand, he said that it must not be forgotten that as no one would like to send off a letter written on the back stained paper, neither was God satisfied with any thing short of a clean sheet in practicing the Ethics of Christianity.

President Plans to Remain at Capital

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—No plans have been made for President Wilson to leave Washington in the near future, it was stated at the White House today. The President has received many invitations to be the guest of southern resorts during his convalescence, but thus far none of the invitations have been accepted. It is stated that while the present plans of the President call for remaining in Washington, it is possible that with the approach of early spring he may take a trip to some southern resort which will not entail too much travel.

REFUSES TO BE COMFORTED

Given Remedy for Potato Bug Pest, Pessimist Digs Up Another Tale of Woe.

A Kansas City farmer has proposed a scheme for doing away with potato bugs so simple that it seems ridiculous. Perhaps not much dependence is to be placed in agricultural suggestions offered by a Kansas City farmer. Kansas farmers should command instant respect, but we would not be inclined to have faith in a Kansas City farmer much more than in a Manhattan farmer. However, this hint may be taken for what it is worth. The Kansas City idea is that all that is necessary to keep the potato bugs away is to plant one bean in the hill with the seed potato. It seems that the bugs hate beans.

Perhaps they do. Anyway, in our own experience we can testify that we have never seen potato bugs feeding on bean vines. It would be a logical assumption that they will not venture into the presence of beans. So far as we have observed there has not been a potato bug in our garden this season. Perhaps, that is because we did not plant any potatoes. But gardens develop or encourage all kinds of bugs besides potato bugs. That is one of the harassing experiences of about every amateur gardener. And if it is not bugs it is something else. Just as you get your garden growing well, along come a couple of calves or a herd of cows and eat off the tops of everything. The bovine tribe seems to have a peculiar fondness for young corn. Only a person with bitter experience can fully appreciate the significance of that old nursery appeal to Little Boy Blue to blow his horn on account of the cow's being in the corn. Between the pests that bite the roots or masticate the leaves and those that eat or trample the plants it is mighty hard to raise growing things.—F. H. Young in Providence Journal.

Loyalty Well Rewarded.

A Parisian with a sense of humor bequeathed 300 francs to each relative who abstained from attending his funeral. One poor relative insisted on following the deceased to the grave; and her loyalty was rewarded, for by a codicil to his will the deceased left the residue of his large fortune to those relatives who were prepared to sacrifice the 300 francs.

Where Can I Find Relief From Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

Question on Lips of Afflicted.
There is a harassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of saives and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source, which is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., which acts by cleansing the blood. Get a bottle to-day, and you will see results from the right treatment. ## To the Pathephone Talking Machine Dealers of Albany:

As an act of courtesy to yourselves, and as an explanation to that part of the public interested in talking machines, we reply to yours addressed to "All Phonograph Dealers," in Saturday's issue of this paper.

Spasmodic advertising of quality merchandise is not quite in line with our views and ideas of approaching the public. And it doesn't occur to us that the public demands, or is in any way interested in phonograph demonstrations in opera houses, or other places when of a "mud-slinging" nature. But we believe that the proper place to test machines is in the customers' homes and that the tests should be made by the customers themselves.

We gladly place our machines in homes on approval for this purpose. We do not wish to criticize your methods of advertising, for it is no concern of ours. But we merely offer this as an explanation of our policy of silence regarding such methods. We feel that our line is so well known that our own wareroom demonstrations are sufficient. And we are positively not interested in other lines of phonographs.

Should you, for your own information and satisfaction, desire a test of merits between your merchandise and ours we shall be glad to grant you a special demonstration for that purpose in a most courteous manner, and without reservation; after which we suggest that you use your newspaper space for the purpose of acquainting the public with whatever good merits you may be able to find in your own individual products. "Mud-slinging" statements in an effort to discount the quality of other dealers' merchandise, in the minds of purchasers, if ever resorted to at all, should be confined to one's own warerooms, for certainly the public would stand for only a limited amount of it in the way of entertainments. As dealers of 16 years experience in the handling of talking machines, we offer these suggestions.
